Tournament Rules & Format

- United States Water Polo / Fina Rules, with the following exceptions
- Six-minute quarters.
- Two, 20 second time outs will be provided for each game.
- With 10 goal leads, time goes to running clock for remainder of the game.
- Ties will be permitted in pool play games.
- Ties will be broken in advancement games during bracket play by going straight to shootouts in accordance to USAWP Rule 11.3.
- In pool play, teams will be afforded 2 points for a win, 1 point for a tie and 0 points for a loss. If there is a tie between teams when determining seeding for advancement, the head to head results will be used to break the tie. If a tie still exists, then FINA Playing Rules, Appendix BL will be used to determine places.
- Forfeited games will be scored 5-0.
- Brutality is a tournament exclusion.
- Red Card includes the following game.
- Players shall wear the same cap numbers for the entire tournament.
- Florida residents must have a permanent Florida residency at least 30 days prior to competition to be eligible to compete on a Florida team. Any teams with non-Florida residents will be deemed a non-domestic team.
- Females may play with Men's and Boy's teams (assuming age eligibility) from their club, as long as their club does not enter a female team in the same age group.
- Masters players can play in as many age divisions as they wish (assuming age eligibility) but only for up to 2 clubs, provided that they may only compete for 2 clubs if neither of the clubs has entered a team in the gender/age group, for which the athlete competes for the other club.
- Athlete age for this tournament is age at June 23, 2017. Referees will be checking each player's USWP membership card prior to each game.

USA Water Polo Sanctioned Event Photo ID Checking Procedure

Coaches MUST check-in with Officials at pool site upon arriving on deck for game(s). IDs will be checked either prior to athletes entering water, 15 minutes prior to start of game, or immediately after previous game ends. Participants must have cap on and ID in hand.

- 1.) Coach to provide copy of USAWP Verified Team Roster to referees. Verified Roster will be given to desk and will be attached to official scoresheet. It will not be returned.
- 2.) Participants should line up on pool deck in numerical order with acceptable form* of photo ID in hand.
- 3.) Referee will call each athlete and coach forward for participant check-in; beginning with Team Staff members.

Referee should match the picture with the participant as they are called forward

- If picture is not very easily recognizable (as determined by the ref) please ask participant to confirm date-of-birth.
- If picture is not recognizable at all, member will not be able to participate in that game until they can provide a proper photo ID.
- If NO picture is on ID and athlete is 12 years old or younger, a parent must show their ID to vouch for the member. Parent should also confirm date of birth of the athlete with the official.
- If no picture is on ID and member is OVER the age of 12, they will not be able to participate in that game until they can provide a photo ID. Parents ID voucher will not suffice.

If member ID does not match player on roster, or no photo ID is provided, member will not be able to participate even if you personally know them. The member cannot be added back to the roster until they can provide a clear, acceptable form of photo ID. The athlete must give their assigned cap to the scoring table until a proper form of photo identification is received and accepted. If this occurs during the course of play, member is to check in with the scoring table during the next quarter break. Compliance is mandatory. Any violation is subject to immediate disqualification.

*Acceptable forms of ID (headshot photos must be clear and recent) - State- or Government-Issued Identification Card - State-issued Drivers License - USA Water Polo Membership Identification Card o Permanent; Temporary; OR via smart phone access to membership account - School-Issued Identification Card - Passport

Protest Procedures

To protest a misapplication of the rules in a game a head coach or team official named on the game roster must:

1. do so within 30 minutes of its ending time

2. immediately pay a $100 cash Protest Fee to the Tournament Director, who holds it in behalf of FSF
3. describe the incident and nature of the protest in writing, using the Protest Form.

The Tournament Director shall immediately notify these parties of a completed filing

1. the non-protesting team's head coach
2. the lead referee at the game site, or in his/her absence, the SSG head referee(s)
3. the SSG Tournament Committee who shall timely hear all protests, and whose decision shall be final.

NOTE: If an adverse condition is known prior to the start of a game, all provisions apply, EXCEPT filing must be complete BEFORE the signal to start the game is given by the game referee. Teams will proceed with the game at the scheduled time.

SSG Red Card and Brutality Suspensions

A participant who receives a red card shall not participate in the team's next game in that division, and until the suspension is served, shall not participate with any team in any division.

A participant penalized for a violation of Rule 21.11 of the USAWP Playing Rules (brutality/violence) shall be ejected from the tournament and may be subject to additional punishment by action of the SSG Tournament Committee.

Weather Delay Procedure

In the case of adverse weather conditions, the following process will take place in determining schedule adjustments in order to insure we complete the tournament.

Less than 50 minute delay: games will resume and no changes will be made to the format.

50 minute delay or greater: any games that have been played through the first half will end with the current score being final. Any games that have not yet reach the first half will either be completed through the first half using a running clock or will go to two 6-minute quarters with a running clock.

100 minute delay: 50 minute delay procedure + all subsequent games will be played as 5 minute quarters with a running clock until the tournament is back on schedule.

150 minute delay: 50 and 100 minute delay procedures + any non-essential games will be cancelled.
